Re: United States v. Lee, et al., 07 Cr. 0003 (LAP)
Hisan Lee v. United States, 17 Civ. 8567 (LAP)

Dear Judge Preska:

The Government respectfully requests a stay of the defendant's motion to reconsider the Court's opinion and order denying the defendant's motion submitted pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255 pending resolution of the defendant's appeal in Lee v. United States, No. 22-1117 (2d Cir.). The Government's opposition to the defendant's motion to reconsider is currently due on October 24, 2022.

On May 20, 2022, the defendant filed a notice of appeal from the Court's denial of the Section 2255 motion. On September 13, 2022, because the defendant failed to timely file a motion for certificate of appealability, the Second Circuit dismissed the appeal and returned the mandate to this Court. Since then, however, the defendant has moved for a certificate of appealability in the Second Circuit, and as of October 18, 2022, the defendant moved to reinstate the appeal and recall the mandate, which the Second Circuit has determined cures the previously defective request for a certificate of appealability. Accordingly, the defendant is actively pursuing the appeal of the Court's denial of his Section 2255 motion, despite having moved for reconsideration before this Court as of July 29, 2022. The Government respectfully requests that the Court, in its discretion, stay the defendant's motion for reconsideration pending resolution of the defendant's appeal, given both the appeal and the motion to reconsider seek review of the Court's order denying the defendant's Section 2255 motion. See United States v. Jiau, 536 F. App'x 140, 141 (2d Cir. 2013) (recognizing that "concerns for judicial economy generally counsel against adjudicating" Section 2255 motions during the pendency of a direct appeal).

SO ORDERED.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
